

The Sadler Street Gallery Newsletter 1

Welcome to this, the first newsletter from the Sadler Gallery, that coincidentally marks the transfer of ownership from Jill Swale to Steven Proudfoot and Pippa Lunberg, which took place on 8th December 2007.

This newsletter is our first opportunity to share with you our plans for the coming year and we very much hope that you find it to be of interest.

The attached programme of exhibitions will provide the main focus to the work of the gallery in 2008 and includes a mixture of themed shows, to encourage individual interpretation, together with a range of 2/3 person shows featuring the work of established gallery artists.

Running alongside this programme of exhibitions, in the upper room, will be a permanently changing mixed exhibition ensuring there is always something new for visitors to enjoy.

We are in the process of devising a programme of events for later in the year and will broadcast details through the newsletter and by invitation to those on the gallery database.

If you are not on our database and would like to receive invitations to the exhibitions or events please forward your email address to pippa@thesadlerstreetgallery.co.uk.

The gallery will continue to show the fine art etchings and watercolours that have been a feature of the work on display for the past few years and we are adding a number of new contemporary artists to the gallery stable who will participate in the themed exhibitions.

Your views on our plans would be very much appreciated and, if you have suggestions about exhibitions or potential artists, please contact us by email.

The next edition of the newsletter will appear in the early spring hopefully along with daffodils and blue skies!
